Use stencils to quickly turn a bare wall into a creative outlet with painted pattern! The FASTEST and EASIEST way to decorate your walls with allover patterns is with Wall Stencils. But don't worry, these aren't your grandmother's rose and vine stencils! These Modern Wall Stencils from Royal Design Studio are reinventing what it means to stencil and are all the rage in today's interiors. They easily make a space look chic and designer-inspired. And when we say easily, we mean it all you DIY folks! You can do it yourself without spending a dime on a professional. Check out these 12 designer interiors that use DIY Modern Wall Stencils...

You can never go wrong with bold geometric patterns when decorating a modern interior. The shapes of our Shape of Things Wall Stencil painted with bold contrasting colors kick white walls into high gear. We are seeing a lot of these contemporary spaces on Instagram and Pinterest, where eye catching color on striking white walls is trending.

Elsabet Trellis Wall Stencil | Royal Design Studio

Our Elsabet Trellis Wall Stencil is great for decorating both contemporary and mid-Century modern interiors. Just look at the gorgeous room above! The retro shapes and mid-century modern furniture give this space a personality of its own. The oval shapes offer the perfect space to randomly insert a surprising spot of color or even some metallic shimmer.

Modern Wall Stencils are the perfect starting point in creating a stylish home. A large geometric pattern like our Contempo Trellis Wall Stencil instantly gives a room a bold look. Pair this modern wallpaper look with black and white and pops of color and you've got yourself a room that's in vogue!

Make the modern magic happen with metallic! Valeria was inspired by the curves of Art Nouveau patterns and used our Fleur de Lily Damask Wall Stencil to decorate this dining room. The metallic paint adds a contemporary flair and makes it that much more swoon-worthy!

Heather Bruno-Sears used our Ankara Impression Stencil Set in this gorgeous interior. This set includes three different two-layer stencils with both a silhouette and a detail layer. That's why you can see the brilliant teal peeking out through the metallic gold design! The browns, golds, teals and scattered medallions on this accent wall make this space a Turkish-inspired oasis.

Modern spaces can combine traditional designs with contemporary colors... it doesn't have to only use modern elements! Take Gina Wolfrum' stencil project here for example. This jaw dropping space is stenciled with our Serenity Damask Wall Stencil that has the look of traditional wallpaper. However, Heather brought a fresh spin on it with bedazzling and a pink couch. Cute!

Our All the Right Curves Damask Wall Stencil gave this bedroom a much-needed dose of fresh style! Heather Bruno-Sears stenciled this elegant and sultry wallpaper-like pattern in a muted eggplant color. Drifting off to sleep would be easy if you were surrounded with this rhythmic wall design.

Our talented in-house design assistant Valeria LOVES stenciling because of, "the endless possibilities, the big space left for creativity, there are no rules, you can make it as simple or complex as you like, and the fact that every job is custom and unique." One of her favorite projects is this Ornamental Cartouche Stenciled space. No wonder – it's hip, modern, and creative!

Paige Whalen finally said goodbye to her boring white bathroom to hello to beautiful stencils! Even though white lights up a room, pattern adds depth. And much like photography, you need both for balanced home decorating. She painted an accent wall with our Lisboa Tile Wall Stencil in blue and added bronze accessories. See how the white lightens up the room, but the blue and bronze make the room look bigger?

Elegant Finishes by Gina and her modern stencil projects are so inspiring! Doesn't this make you want to redecorate?? If you said yes, then good thing that stenciling makes it easy and affordable! Like all of our wall stencils, our Ribbon Lattice Wall Stencil is cheaper than wallpaper... and you can redecorate and repaint whenever you want!

A stenciled accent wall is the perfect way to make an impact in an all-white room! It's also great for decorating a bedroom that is transitioning from girly to grown-up, like in Tammy's daughter's case. Tammy Damore used our Silk Road Suzani Wall Stencil and a custom Chalk Paint® mix to get the exact color and look she wanted. Her daughter will love for years to come!

Little House of Four's home office had been uninspiring for way too long, and she needed a boost of creativity to get her through the work week slump. A cost effective fix to a stark white office is a stenciled accent wall. She chose to stencil our Chez Ali Moroccan Wall Stencil in silver to jazz up her space. Now her office is a productive AND inspiring creative space!
